

Young European Movement need help with their time capsule

Young European Movement Edinburgh will create a time capsule, and they want to hear from you!

On Saturday 30 June at 11:00am in front of The Scottish Parliament, they will gather to create a time capsule that will capture the sentiment of Edinburgh as it stands 2 years since the Brexit vote. They are going to open it in another 2 years' time, and see how things have progressed.

Joanna Cherry SNP MP, Lib-Dem MSP Alex Cole-Hamilton and Juuso Jarviniemi President of YEM UK, will speak to the gathering

You are invited to join them and bring your own notes, pictures, or other paraphernalia that you would like added to the box. Write about what the last two years of Brexit has meant to you, and what you hope the next two years will bring.
