

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2018 – About Lady White Fox With Nine Tales...

What if Lady Macbeth was the reincarnation of the mysterious White Fox?

YVUA Arts from Seoul Korea present their award-winning About Lady White Fox with the Nine Tales... Excellent Domestic Performing Arts Production by Korean Cultural and Arts Centres Association, 2017.

A powerful retelling of Shakespeare's Macbeth based on the mysterious and exotic White Fox legend of the Orient.

Stunning imagery, live painting and physical movement with Korean traditional instruments and music combine in a spellbinding and provocative reinterpretation of this classic story, examining the essential duplicity of human nature and the agony of endless desire.

Assembly George Square Studios Three 13:00 2-27 August
