

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2018 – Hunch

Written and performed by Kate Kennedy (BBC One's Midsummer Night's Dream, Channel 4's Catastrophe and The Win Bin, The Old Red Lion Theatre), produced by Edinburgh Fringe favourites DugOut Theatre (Replay, Swansong, The Sunset Five and Inheritance Blues) and directed by Old Vic 12's Sara Joyce (Dust, Edinburgh Fringe and Soho Theatre; The Win Bin, The Old Red Lion Theatre and The Scar Test, Soho Theatre), Hunch is a dark new comedy about a superhero and her power to make gut decisions.

After using this power to save the lives of others, she starts calling the shots to save her own life. This funny and heartfelt piece celebrates the individual and restores one's faith in oneself while teaching us that, more often than not, our own gut feeling is right.

1-27 August 2018 (not 13 th), 17:05, Assembly Roxy (Downstairs), 2 Roxburgh Place, Edinburgh, EH8 9SU