

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2018 – Sleeping Trees : World Tour

Following the huge success of their epic movie inspired trilogy: MAFIA?, WESTERN? and SCI-FI?, the award winning sketch trio Sleeping Trees embarked on a “WorldTour”. But having lived and worked together for nine years, could their travels be the beginning of the end for James Dunnell-Smith, Joshua George Smith and John Woodburn?

What starts as an innocent journey of discovery soon leads to an intricate series of events, culminating in an adventure so adventurous it makes Indiana Jones look like Emmerdale: Season Two. Join Sleeping Trees as they share a story of love, revenge and friendship, and by friendship, they mean revenge.

Sleeping Trees’ unique brand of surreal, physical and fast-paced comedy have seen them become Fringe favourites, being awarded Mervyn Stutter’s Spirit of the Fringe Award in 2017, Voice magazine’s Pick of the Fringe Award in 2016 and shortlisted in the Amused Moose Comedy Award Top Ten in 2016.

Sleeping Trees: World Tour is directed by Tom Parry (Pappy's / Edinburgh Comedy Award nominee).
