

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2018 – Tamar Broadbent : Best Best

Award-winning songwriter Tamar Broadbent is back and this time she's asking – how do you know if you're living your best life? If you're not, how do you go about changing it? This exciting musical comedy about ambition, anxiety and avocados promises to be her best show yet.

Developed by Tamar and Sara Joyce, Best Life brings together mesmerising musical theatre, beautifully written songs and highly relatable observational comedy for which Broadbent's dedicated Edinburgh audiences love her.

Tamar is best known for her funny, catchy songs about single life in your twenties which she has toured around the UK and internationally.

2-26 August 2018 (not 13th), 14:20, Underbelly Cowgate (Belly Laugh), 66 Cowgate, Edinburgh, EH1 1JX
