

Hibs offer limited spaces on club's chartered flight to Greece

Hibs have offered a limited number of spaces to supporters on the club's chartered flight to Greece to take on Asteras Tripolis in the UEFA Europa League Second Qualifying Round 2nd leg.

The chartered flight will leave from Edinburgh Airport at 7am on Tuesday 31 July and land in Kalamata Airport at approximately 1:35pm. The return flight leaves at an estimated 1:30am on Friday 3 August, immediately after the match.

There is a flight only option, priced at £725pp, with a further two packages in a designated supporter hotel available, with prices starting from £875 for a two night stay and includes a transfer by bus, bed and breakfast.

Coach transport to and from the match will be provided with pick up from a central point before the game. Details will be circulated to those who travel and we will have staff and management agents there to help and direct.

Flight only and transfers to and from the match: £725 per person

Include overnight stay (two nights) with two sharing a twin/double room: £875 per person

Include overnight stay (two nights) for one person with single room: £910

Cost includes VAT, airline and local taxes and meal on board the flight.

Match ticket information will be published when confirmed. Match tickets require to be purchased separately. Supporters are reminded that they should ensure that they have sufficient and appropriate travel insurance in place.

Data checks on supporters with Football/Club banning orders or similar will be done before booking is confirmed and travel will be denied.
