

Make Scottish Arts Club your base this August

In August, The Scottish Arts Club becomes Festival Fringe Venue 310 and will also become the ClubFest home to local, national and international performers at selected times each day.

Why not get your Edinburgh Festivals off to a good start with a Whisky & Salmon Tasting evening on 3 August 2018 then follow up with jazz, poetry, classical recitals, cabaret, a Gin Tour of Scotland, harp music or a touch of Arthur Sullivan, during lunchtime or evening performances.

The club will welcome Ron Davis' SymphRONica jazz ensemble from Canada.

International concert pianist Elena Fischer-Dieskau, harpist Phamie Gow will perform with literary giant Professor David Purdie, cabaret artiste Cat Loud, sparkling fun and nonsense with "Cox & Box" and poetry and music from French pianist Alexandre Prévert who will all take you on a journey through time and history.
