

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2018 – Jordan Gray – People Change

JORDAN Gray has just appeared in Paloma Faith's latest video "Warrior". She is just one of several individuals that the pop star points to as a strong role model in her life.

This month, Jordan is appearing in her show "People Change" at Just the Tonic at The Caves (8.50pm to 9.50pm), and this is one of our recommendations for your 2018 Fringe.

After a ten year career in the music business, recording artist Jordan Gray announced a sudden and surprise leap into stand-up comedy... Why? In her debut comedy special People Change, the transgender comic attempts to justify the second-biggest change of her life.

Jordan fuses her wonderful uplifting joie de vivre comedy with a number of musical numbers that show why her music was so popular. This could be one of those shows, tucked away down off the Royal Mile that you will see and really be grateful that you caught. It is also Pay What You Want, so you have nothing to lose!

<https://tickets.edfringe.com/whats-on/jordan-gray-people-change>

Here is the Paloma Faith video

Below is a link to a review of the pre-Edinburgh show in London.

<http://www.yourthurrock.com/2018/05/03/review-jordan-gray-curtain-people-change/>