

Gilson Gray add experience to their North Berwick team

Edinburgh based law firm, Gilson Gray, have recruited David McPhail an East Lothian property expert to their North Berwick team. David previously worked in the area for 30 years specialising in residential property, but is coming out of retirement to assist the firm in one of the UK's fastest developing property sectors.

Photo Wullie Marr Photography

David said: "Having assisted in the establishment of a successful North Berwick Estate Agency in recent years, I'm looking forward to working with Property Sales Manager Gail Walshe and Head of Private Client, Partner, Dorothy Kellas, to develop the increasingly impressive market share they are currently enjoying."

Matthew Gray, Managing Director of Gilson Gray Property Services, said: "We are absolutely delighted that David is joining our wonderful team in East Lothian.

"He is a consummate professional with an unrivalled knowledge of the East Lothian Property market. David's skill set compliments the existing expertise within the North Berwick office and firmly cements our total commitment to East Lothian."

Bucking industry trends of cutbacks and mergers with its fresh and dynamic approach, Gilson Gray has tripled in scale since its launch in May 2014.