Man arrested following serious assault inside Garibaldi's

Police have arrested a man in connection with the serious assault of a woman in the city centre which took place inside Garibaldi's on Hanover Street around 1.30am on 21st April.

A 24-year-old man was arrested on 29th August and has been released pending further enquiries.

Detectives would like to extend their sincere appreciation to the members of the public and the media who supported the police appeal for information.