

Thomas Agyepong joins Hibs on-loan from Manchester City

Thomas Agyepong has completed his registration at Hibs and is now awaiting the completion of the necessary visa process before joining up with Neil Lennon's squad where he will spend this season on-loan.

Agyepong will replace Manchester City team-mate Brandon Barker in the squad. Barker who enjoyed a successful loan spell last season has elected to join Preston North End for this current campaign and the Hibs' fans hope that Agyepong will make the same impact.

The highly rated 21-year-old winger signed for Manchester City in 2015 from the Right to Dream Academy, spending his time since then on loan at Twente and then two seasons at NAC Breda.

He made his international debut for Ghana in June 2017, appearing in a 5-0 win over Ethiopia.

He will wear the number 17 jersey at Hibs.
