There's a pre-Christmas treat for fans of Motown music when Motown the Musical comes to the Edinburgh in November.

The cast of this feel-good show includes West End star Edward Baruwa, Karis Anderson of pop band Stooshe, Nathan Lewis, a finalist on ITV's The X Factor and Shak Gabbidon-Williams a rising star in London's West End theatre scene.

Charles Randolph-Wright, Director of Motown the Musical said:

"I am so thrilled that we have been able to find this incredible cast of British artists for the UK tour of Motown the Musical. Their talent has astounded us all, as they embody the soul of Motown and capture the energy and essence of those iconic artists. We are so excited to bring this show to cities across the UK and can't wait to begin. Get ready!"

Motown the Musical is at Edinburgh Playhouse from 20 November to 8 December 2018. Tickets here
