

Escape to Silverwood as a base for the new V&A

HEAD NORTH TO CARSE OF GOWRIE AND CHECK OUT THE NEW V&A IN DUNDEE

Still looking for somewhere to book for an October School Holiday break?

Thinking of visiting the new V&A in Dundee at the same time?

Edinburgh is awash with attractions but if you have temporarily exhausted them and want to take the kids somewhere fresh, the new V&A in Dundee seems to be the perfect place to which to head, gathering superb reviews already!

A great place to stay, ideal for families and couples, and close to both Dundee and Perth, is the newly launched Silverwood resort. Set in the beautiful Carse of Gowrie, near the small village of Errol, the Resort has October availability in its luxury spa lodges, which sleep four, and are complete with a fabulous indoor spa bath with outside decking. Other features of these superbly available lodges, are bathrooms with walk in double showers, large living dining areas with floor to ceiling windows, cosy sofas, and beds with crisp white linen.

Along with the spa lodges, family lodges are available which sleep six. Again, these lodges are spacious and well appointed, with luxury fitted kitchens, family living areas with 50 inch TV's, and bedrooms with decadent en-suites – everything you need for a well earned family break, or trip with like minded couples.

Check out the V&A and other attractions of Dundee, just a short distance away via the A90 motorway, and return to the peace and quiet of Silverwood, with its picturesque scenery and own wildlife pond, well stocked with trout. Close by there is even an Army tank driving activity centre for the more adventurous to try!

Three night weekend breaks October to November, are from £395 for a lodge sleeping four, reduced from £565, and from £455 for luxury family lodges, sleeping six, reduced from £665. Four night midweek stays are also available, from £465 in the spa lodge, and from £535 in the family lodge.
