

Hearts Naismith Called Into Scotland Squad

Hearts Steven Naismith has been called up to the Scotland squad for the forthcoming internationals against Belgium and Albania. The on-loan Norwich City player has 45 international caps and, given his form for Hearts this season, will be hopeful of pulling on the dark blue shirt once again.

Naismith joins Hearts colleague John Souttar in the Scotland squad.

In other news, Hearts will put tickets for their Betfred Cup quarter final with Motherwell at Tynecastle Park on 26th September on sale from tomorrow. Details are as follows:

Adults: £18

Over 65s/Students: £10

Under 16s: £8

Tickets will be available to purchase from 9am tomorrow via the club's three sales channels:

Online at Hearts eTicketing

Over the phone on 0333 043 1874 (option 1, then 1)

In person at the
Hearts Ticket Office at the Main Stand, Tynecastle Park (off McLeod Street)

Meanwhile, Hearts new signing Craig Wighton scored twice in Hearts Reserves 5-1 win over Dundee United this afternoon.
