

Hibs sign eight players during summer transfer window

Hibs signed eight players in the summer transfer window, with ten players departing the club.

Neil Lennon sought to strengthen his side in the summer and brought in six senior internationals, with caps for Australia, the Republic of Ireland, United States of America, Ghana and Hungary respectively.

Adam Bogdan, Thomas Agyepong, and Emerson Hyndman all arrived on loan from English Premier League clubs, Jamie MacLaren arrive on loan from Germany while Daryl Horgan, Mark Milligan, Stevie Mallan and Flo Kamperi all joined on permanent deals.

The window closed at midnight last night and Hibs' fans breathed a huge sigh of relief with the news that Efe Ambrose was still at the club after Lennon had earlier indicated that he was possibly heading for Turkey.
