

Theatre – Dracula – Your lives are at stake!

DRACULA – King's Theatre 30 October – 3 November 2018

Fangs are looking up as the autumnal nights draw in and Tollcross grocers stock up on garlic.

Dracula is one of the most universally iconic novels ever written. A monumental, genre defining classic that is known the world over, Dracula remains the father of all vampire tales. This autumn an all new production resurrects the bloodthirsty tale as part of a nine-week tour, with exclusive Scottish dates at the King's Theatre.

Multi award-winning actress Cheryl Campbell plays Lady Renfield with TV favourite Philip Bretherton as Van Helsing and Glen Fox playing The Lord Of The Flies, dental as anything, Dracula.

Produced by Matthew Gale, Eduard Lewis directs this sexy, dark and thrilling brand-new stage adaptation of Bram Stoker's classic tale of obsession and horror. Ben Hart's incredible illusion design will create an atmosphere of spine-chilling fear as audiences are shaken to their very core.

Completely re-imagined by an exciting creative team, discover the story that started them all. In Transylvania, enter the castle of Count Dracula and his three brides. The Count, who feeds on the elixir of young blood to look youthful, will take you on a deliciously evil ride as he pursues his victims and encounters Jonathan Harker, Professor Van Helsing and Dr. Seward along the way.

Emotionally fulfilling, utterly terrifying, spellbindingly addictive, will this Dracula ever die?

You are dared to be scared! Just look again at that rose...
