

William Hill Scottish Cup Second Round Draw

The draw for the 2018-19 William Hill Scottish Cup Second Round took place at Hampden Park on Saturday night..

Host Luke Shanley was joined by Eve Muirhead and Ray Montgomerie.

St Johnstone supporter Eve is a modern-day Scottish sporting icon, having led Team GB's curlers to bronze in the 2014 Winter Olympics, having conquered the World Championships a year earlier.

Ray sealed his own place in the history books by captaining Kilmarnock to Scottish Cup glory in 1997, with a 1-0 triumph over Falkirk.

There is a possibility of an Edinburgh derby as Edinburgh City face the winners of Forres Mechanics/Civil Service Strollers whilst Spartans travel to East Kilbride.

The ties will be played on Saturday, 20 October.

The draw for the William Hill Scottish Cup Second Round is as follows:

Albion Rovers v Formartine United

Beith Juniors v Linlithgow Rose

Berwick Rangers v Gretna FC 2008

Brora Rangers v Coldstream

Cove Rangers v Auchinleck Talbot

Cowdenbeath v Clyde

Cumbernauld Colts v BSC Glasgow

Deveronvale v University of Stirling/Keith

East Kilbride v Spartans

Edinburgh City v Forres Mechanics/Civil Service Strollers

Edusport Academy v Fraserburgh

Elgin City v Whitehall Welfare

Gala Fairydean v East Stirlingshire

Peterhead v Dalbeattie Star/Kelty Hearts

Roths v Annan Athletic

Stirling Albion v Queen's Park

The ties will be played on Saturday, 20 October.