

Draw for the 2018-19 William Hill Scottish Cup Third Round

The draw for the 2018-19 William Hill Scottish Cup Third Round took place at Hampden Park last night.

The host, Sky Sports' Luke Shanley was joined by former Hibs, Hearts and Scotland player Paul Hartley and Sanjeev Kohli.

Sanjeev is an actor and comedian perhaps best known for his role as shopkeeper Navid in Still Game.

On-form Edinburgh City will face John Robertson's Inverness Caledonian Thistle.

The ties will be played on Saturday, 24 November.

The draw for the William Hill Scottish Cup Third Round is as follows:

Airdrieonians v Dumbarton

Alloa Athletic v Brechin City

Arbroath v Stranraer

Beith Juniors v Ayr United

Berwick Rangers v East Fife

Cowdenbeath v Brora Rangers

East Kilbride v Gala Fairydean Rovers

Edinburgh City v Inverness Caledonian Thistle

Forfar Athletic v BSC Glasgow

Fraserburgh v Cove Rangers or Auchinleck Talbot

Greenock Morton v Peterhead

Montrose v Annan Athletic

Queen of the South v Formartine United

Queen's Park v Raith Rovers

Stenhousemuir v Falkirk

University of Stirling v Elgin City

The ties will be played on Saturday, 24 November.