

Local hairdresser welcome into Hall of Fame

Neil Barton Hairdressing was welcomed into the Goldwell UK's Global Color Zoom Hall of Fame recently.

Last year's winner Agnes Westerman who was inducted into the Hall of Fame last year made the announcement at the Global Zoom 2018 Gala Show held in Toronto. This means that Neil is the second recipient of the award given to a hairdresser who uses their win at the Color Zoom Challenge to develop their career.

Kao Salon's Global President said : "Neil was our Color Zoom winner in Paris and we inducted Neil for this years Hall of Fame Award, as he took his Color Zoom Challenge win and built a stellar career traveling the world winning International Awards."

Goldwell Ambassador and Owner of Neil Barton Hair said : "To win the Hall of Fame Award was such a surprise and I am absolutely delighted. Goldwell is a huge part of my career and to be part of such great shows is truly incredible."

The two day show was held at the Enercare Centre in Toronto. It was a spectacular mix of visual graphics, dancers and a brightly coloured fashion show of the latest collection REMIX created by the Global Artistic Team.

Neil Barton Hairdressing is the latest inductee in the Hall of Fame