

Pentlands Book Festival – tickets now available

Pentlands Book Festival: tickets now released

As detailed in the October print issue of The Edinburgh Reporter the Pentlands Book Festival has another strong programme this year: ranging from poetry with Jackie Kay, via the rebel Thomas Muir, to the crimes and mysteries of Val McDermid and Josephine Tay. There are talks on whisky, rucksacks, bosons, and botanical illustration; a walk along a radical road; local authors to inspire; and a fun quiz on them all. As Miss Jean Brodie would say, it's in its prime!

The PBF committee is pleased to say that tickets have now been released for all events – online on Eventbrite and in Currie and Colinton libraries.

You can find all the information you need on their website <http://pentlandsbookfestival.org/> or in the flyers in the libraries and other select outlets.

Tickets are going fast for many events so don't delay in making your bookings. All events are free, except that you'll pay for food and drink at the Scientific Supper, and to get in to Colinton Lit if you are not a member.

Links to the tickets for each event are below:

Still in Her Prime – Miss Jean Brodie:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-prime-of-miss-jean-brodie-tickets-51133745409?ref=ecal>

A Conversation with Jackie Kay, Scotland's Poet of the People:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/a-conversation-with-jackie-kay-scotlands-poet-of-the-people-tickets-48981827966>

The War Poets Collection at Craiglockhart Campus: call Geoff Akers on 0131 453 4560 to reserve a place

From Maxwell to Higgs: How Physics Explains the Real World:
call Cliff Beevers on 0131 453 4517 to reserve a place

From Model to Makar:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/from-model-to-makar-tickets-51115413578>

Grand Literary Quiz:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/grand-literary-quiz-tickets-48773220014>

Meet our Local Authors, Amanda Berriman, Norma-Ann Coleman, Geoff Akers: no tickets necessary – just turn up

Rucksack-friendly Guidebooks for Walkers: How I Stumbled into Publishing:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/rucksack-friendly-guidebooks-for-walkers-how-i-stumbled-into-publishing-tickets-48758566184>

The Rebel that Scotland Forgot:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-rebel-that-scotland-forgot-tickets-48758589253>

Can you Crush a Radical: call Liz Beevers on 0131 453 4517 to reserve a place

Reflections on the Water of Life:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/reflections-on-the-water-of-life-tickets-48758790856>

Iain MacDonald, the Gannet: tickets available on the door

Plants on Paper: Flower Painting or Botanical

Illustration?: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/plants-on-paper-flower-painting-or-botanical-illustration-tickets-48758508010>

A Life of Mystery: Josephine Tey : <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/a-life-of-mystery-josephine-tey-tickets-48981813924>

Poetry Competition Prize-giving Ceremony: no tickets necessary – just turn up

Killing People for Fun and Profit: an evening with the Queen of Crime: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/killing-people-for-fun-and-profit-an-evening-with-the-queen-of-crime-tickets-48773318308>

So you think you're funny? A Creative Writing Workshop for Children: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/so-you-think-youre-funny-a-creative-writing-workshop-for-children-tickets-51116896012>

