

Property – Is the West Highland Way beckoning you?

FROM EAST TO WEST – IS THE WEST HIGHLAND WAY BECKONING YOU?

If you're on the look out for a holiday home that is close to the West Highland Way for walking opportunities, this holiday hut may be just what you are looking for!

Set in a picturesque, family owned holiday development on Drymen Road, the hut is priced at £59,950 and includes two bedrooms, a spacious kitchen diner, lounge and modern bathroom.

The hut at Carbeth is on offer with a £1000 cashback

It's also on offer with a £1000 cashback which can go towards furnishing the hut to the owners' taste.

The site is close to the Carbeth Inn, which is currently being redeveloped, and is owned by developers Ashleigh and John Hendry, the business owners behind the successful Red Deer Retirement Village in Stepps.

They have created a very special development, with a mix of brand new and refurbished huts. It has sold extremely well to purchasers all over the West of Scotland and beyond, keen to acquire their very own holiday hut for many years of happy holidays.

The final hut also has its own spacious plot of ground, and is complete with gas central heating and external decking.

The location could not be more convenient, close to the West Highland Way for fantastic walking opportunities.

“This is the very final hut we have left to sell here,” said Ashleigh Hendry. “It’s available with the added incentive of £1000 towards furnishing costs so you can put your own stamp on it. We have brought the original Carbeth hut concept bang up to date for the 21st Century with well equipped, affordable huts. They also represent a great investment opportunity as you are buying into a sought after area.”

“Our site has only eighteen huts in total, so it’s the perfect size. It’s very easy to get to, so you can be here in your bolthole enjoying a break in no time.”
