

STV Street Team to visit Edinburgh Leisure's soft play venues

There'll be added value for kids coming to Edinburgh Leisure's soft-play venues over the next few weeks when STV's Street Team come to visit.

STV's Street Team will be entertaining the children with some fun activities and games including bringing some mascots from STV's top kids shows. STV is working alongside Hopster and Hopster, who provide STV Players with kids programmes, including Pingu and In the Night Garden. Parents will also be able to sign up to STV Player, where all the new Hopster content can be enjoyed.

Edinburgh Leisure has several soft play venues

The STV Street Team will be at the following venues on:

12 October – 11.00-15.00 – Tumbles soft-play

20 Westbank Street, Edinburgh EH5 1DR

14 October – 11.00 – 17.00 – Clambers at the Royal Commonwealth Pool

Dalkeith Road, Edinburgh EH16 5BB

19 October – 11.00 – 13.00 – Scrambles at the EICA:Ratho

South Platt Hill, Newbridge, EH28 8AA

This October, Edinburgh Leisure has a soft-play promotion, inspiring kids to get the active habit, with their Young Explorer soft-play membership, where children get to sample the world of sport and fitness from an early age. For those signing up to become a member in October, November is completely free.

From only £16.00 per month, (see Edinburgh Leisure's website for details) the membership offers incredible value, fantastic flexibility and of course, will keep little ones entertained and burning off energy as they explore the amazing soft plays.

Little adventurers can visit as many times as they wish, enjoying unlimited fun at any of Edinburgh Leisure's three soft play venues across the city at Clambers at the Royal Commonwealth Pool, Tumbles at Portobello and Scrambles at EICA: Ratho.

Edinburgh Leisure's play frames are suitable for children up to ten years old. Each venue has a café where healthy snacks and tasty treats can be enjoyed.

With great member benefits including special offers, members' events and free birthday party places, The Young Explorer is only available to buy in person at your nearest Edinburgh Leisure soft play venue.

www.edinburghleisure.co.uk

