

Join in some festive fun with Edinburgh Leisure's Santa

Join in some festive fun with Santa and work off those mince pies

Santa's been in training for his busiest time of year by paying a visit to Edinburgh Leisure's soft plays and venues, burning off his excess energy and all those calories he's going to consume this December. He's been spotted practising his descending skills on the climbing walls at Ratho and making a splash at 'The Commie'.

You can join in Santa's festive celebrations at Tumbles at Portobello and at Clambers at The Royal Commonwealth Pool, while getting active too. From rocking around the Christmas tree to Christmas parties, breakfasts and teas and burning off all that Christmas excitement across the city's soft play venues, there's plenty to keep kids active this festive season.

So that's how Santa gets fit for climbing down all those chimneys!
