

New Partner at Thomson Cooper Accountants

Thomson Cooper Accountants announce that from Thursday 1st November, Sharon Collins has joined the firm as a partner.

Ms Collins, a former partner at Condie's Accountants, is a qualified accountant with considerable experience in a range of business sectors and the not for profit sector.

She has extensive audit experience and provides accounts, tax and business advisory services to a diverse portfolio of clients.

Regarding her new challenge Ms Collins commented : "Many firms are withdrawing from the audit marketplace due to increasing legislation. Thomson Cooper have a dedicated audit department that benefits from ongoing investment and I believe there is significant potential for us to increase our reach with this specialist service. I look forward to continuing to work with my existing clients who will benefit from the many added value features that Thomson Cooper provide, including their Business Development Programme."

Managing Partner David Walker added, "Sharon is a valuable addition to our established team with her considerable business network and auditing experience, and I look forward to welcoming her clients on board."