Police name 50-year-old Livingston man who died following collision on A801

A man who died following a road traffic collision in West Lothian last weekend has been named as Gary Sinclair.

Gary, who was 50 and from Livingston, died following the collision on the A801 between the Boghead and Heatherfield roundabouts involving a lorry and a Citroen car at around 7.30pm on Sunday evening 28th October.

Gary's family would like to thank everyone who came to his aid and responded to the crash, both members of the public and the emergency services, and have requested that their privacy is respected at this difficult time.

Anyone with information that may assist the investigation should contact Livingston Road Policing Unit on 101 quoting reference 4160 of Sunday 28th October