

Silverwood trying to tempt you out of the city with discount offers

SILVERWOOD LODGE OFFERS TO TEMPT YOU FROM THE CITY

With Christmas approaching, some Capital dwellers may want to go further afield for festive shopping, dining and attractions. Dundee, with the new V&A, is proving to be a popular choice.

If you are looking for lovely accommodation nearby to make a short break of it, Silverwood Luxury Resort at Errol can provide just what you are after, and has discounted breaks throughout November to February, as well as reduced Twixmas prices.

Situated in the stunning Carse of Gowrie, Silverwood is just minutes from the motorway connecting Perth and Dundee.

It has availability in its luxury spa lodge, sleeping four, with 2 nights midweek at £225, 4 nights midweek at £389, or a three night weekend break at £325. Features of these brand new lodges include double showers, comfy sofas, widescreen TV's and spa baths.

Or if you are looking for a Twixmas Break, perhaps to enjoy the beautiful countryside for walking and cycling, there is also good availability.

24-27 December in the luxury spa lodge, now £545 (was £845), the family lodge, sleeping six, now £695, (was £925), and the hideaway lodge, sleeping four, now £445, (was £695.)
