

Look out for Stocko! (you can't miss him...)

Stocko – the playful, loveable and ever so slightly mischievous neverending Christmas stocking and star of the TK Maxx Christmas advert will be making his way around the streets of central Edinburgh this morning.

The gigantic 50ft stocking, so big he is carried by 25 helpers, will be surprising and delighting passers-by as he hiccups out prezzies to those he interacts with, spreading some much needed festive cheer amongst Christmas shoppers, throughout the day.

Do let us know if you see him!
