

Oaklands Special School are promised a fun packed day this month

Happy Days Children's Charity is treating children from Oaklands Special School to a performance of Dick Whittington by the M&M Productions travelling theatre. The theatre group will visit Oaklands on Ferry Road and put on a fantastic fun filled day on 11 December.

Happy Days Community Fundraiser, Suffia Shah, said: "We were able to support over 26,000 children and their families last year alone, but we couldn't have done this without the amazing help of our volunteers and fundraisers. So we'd love to hear from anyone who would like to get involved and support our work. Our holidays, day trips, workshops and performances are a lifeline to children across the UK providing them with happiness and hope as well as important social and developmental skills.

We help families caring for children with life-limiting conditions, disabilities, abused children and young carers and would encourage anyone in the area that would benefit from a respite break to get in touch."
