

Racial Abuse Alleged at Tynecastle Park

Police Scotland have confirmed two people were arrested following Hearts game with Motherwell at Tynecastle on Saturday. The reason for their arrests has not been given but it is understood from social media reports that racial abuse was directed towards the Motherwell player Christian Mbulu during the game.

Hearts and Motherwell Do Battle at Tynecastle

It is understood that Police Scotland have been given cc tv footage from the main stand at Tynecastle which shows a number of people shouting abusive comments towards the player. Hearts have told BBC Scotland they are aware of the incident and are co-operating with Police Scotland.

The incident follows alleged racist abuse to Celtic's Scott

Sinclair during last Sunday's Betfred Cup final with Aberdeen at Hampden Park.
