

Shop at The Centre Livingston – open again today

Crowds flocked to one of Scotland's largest indoor shopping centres, The Centre, Livingston on Christmas Eve to pick up some last-minute presents.

Student Lauren Smith, (23), who was shopping with her sister Rebecca, (16), said: "My sister and I still had to tick off a few people on our Christmas list which we knew we would be able to do at The Centre in Livingston as it has great selection of all the best shops all under one roof.

"It was great that was also managed to pick up some nice gifts for ourselves too."
