

Buying a new home? Allanwater Homes holding open weekend

OPEN WEEKEND SALES SHOWCASE TAKING PLACE AT THE VIEWS IN SALINE THIS WEEKEND!

- Don't mull too long over fantastic new homes such as the Kintyre, The Vorlich and the Grampian!

Allanwater Homes is holding a special Sales Open Weekend this weekend at The Views in Saline, showcasing a number of its fantastic larger four and five bedroom homes, the Cairngorm, the Kintyre, the Vorlich, and the Grampian. Special incentives are available on selected plots all weekend for those reserving a property.

The Vorlich

Prices are from £254,995 for the Cairngorm four bedroom detached villa. The attractive Kintyre, also with four bedrooms, is priced at £305,995, whilst buyers can also choose from a number of five bedroom split level villas, specially designed for the development. These include the Vorlich, from £339,995, and the Grampian at £334,000, which is complete with a double garage.

The Views in Saline is within easy commuting of Edinburgh
The Views in Saline is already proving to be a very desirable development of eco friendly stylish homes for today's discerning buyers. Coming from all over the Central Belt, they have been attracted by the charming semi rural setting, picturesque scenery, and easy commuting to Stirling, Dunfermline and across Scotland.

The properties at The Views offer an abundance of space and features, with luxury kitchens and bathrooms, en-suite master bedrooms, home offices, and spacious dining rooms.

"We're delighted with how sales are going here at The Views, and hope that those interested in a new four or five bedroom home, including our split level designs which have wowed buyers so far with their inventive use of space, will come and pay us a visit this weekend to find out more and take advantage of some amazing incentives," said Sharron McCarthy, Sales and Marketing Manager for Allanwater Homes.

"All of our properties are energy efficient to offer lower running costs. Saline is well served by many local amenities including a Primary School, Post Office, and its own golf course," she added.

Buyers can choose their contemporary kitchens, complete with integrated appliances, from a wide choice available, subject to reservation date and build schedule. Many available optional extras are available, with some plots offered with a garage. The Views has been specially designed to offer generous plot sizes.

The Views in Saline lives up to its name
The Sales Office is open at The Views, Thursday to Monday 11am – 5.30pm, along with the development's fantastic Grampian Showhome.

Call on 07860 954077 for more details on the homes at The Views, or check out the web at www.allanwater.co.uk