

Ice hockey – Racers reach out to Capital football fans

Murrayfield Racers are reaching out to season ticket holders of Hibs, Hearts and Edinburgh City.

Racers take on title rivals Paisley Pirates in the Scottish National League on Sunday (face-off 6pm).

And season ticket holders of the three clubs can watch the game for £5 and kids go free.

In addition, a family of four (two adults and two children) can watch this weekend's clash for £10.

The offer comes as the Premiership is in its winter break.

Tickets at this special price must be purchased in advance via www.mracers.com/tickets and at least one season ticket must be produced on entry.

Willie Dunn, Racers' spokesman, said: "Come on Edinburgh football fans and get down to Murrayfield Ice Rink with the family this Sunday for a great night out.

"Cheer on the Racers as they try to boost their chances of winning the league."
