

NHS Lothian Annual Review

Members of the public are invited to a meeting on 4 February when the Annual Review will be held.

The public meeting will be chaired by Ms Jeane Freeman MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Health and Sport, and is the formal process through which the Scottish Government assesses NHS Lothian's performance in 2017-2018.

Members of the public are welcome to attend the Annual Review which will include a 30 minute question and answer session giving them an opportunity to ask about health services in Lothian. It will not be possible to answer questions about an individual patient's care or treatment at this session.

Mr Brian Houston, Chairman, NHS Lothian, said: "We look forward to welcoming the Cabinet Secretary and members of the public to our Annual Review. This meeting allows NHS Lothian the opportunity to look back on our achievements of the previous year, to review areas where we need to improve and to set out our plans for the future."

The public session will be held from 2pm to 3pm in the Scottish Health Service Centre, Crewe Road South, Edinburgh EH4 2LF

British Sign Language Interpreters will be available during the meeting.

Questions in advance of the meeting are welcomed. Please email

NHS
Lothian at: Strategic.Planning@nhslothian.scot.nhs.uk

