

Vision for the Heart of Newhaven holding public meeting on Monday

The Heart of Newhaven website is now live and there will be a meeting on Monday 28 January when the Vision for the Heart of Newhaven will be launched.

Rodney Matthews, The Heart of Newhaven Vision Facilitator told us : “I am pleased to send you more information about the important event at Victoria Primary School on 28th January when we will formally Launch the Vision for The Heart of Newhaven, which includes our bid to acquire Victoria Primary School for the Newhaven Community in due course.

“Our new website is now active which you can access here. There you will find much more information.

“I will be delighted to welcome you at this historic occasion which builds on the ideas of the public meeting on 4th October.”
