

At The Traverse Theatre – In Other Words

In Other Words begins on 1 March 2019 for two nights.

This deeply emotive play explores the effects of Alzheimer's disease on a person and their daily life. The very topic will resonate with many in the audience as so many people today have been affected by the disease in some way.

Main characters, Arthur and Jane tell their story and showcase their relationship as Alzheimer's takes a hold.

The deep topic will be teamed with Sinatra music giving it an intimate feeling and conveying just how powerful music is in our lives.

- Paul Brotherston Designer, Director
- Iida Aino Sound Designer
- William Alder Lighting Designer
- Angela Hardie & Matthew Seager Cast

Full price tickets cost £12 Standard concession £10.50. Under 30s and Students £9 Other concessions £5.

To book tickets, t 0131 228 1404 or visit the Traverse Theatre website.

