

Chinese Festival of Lanterns at St Bride's Centre

St Bride's Centre welcome the Chinese Festival of Lanterns on 17 February 2019 at the centre on Orwell Terrace.

St Bride's celebrates Chinese New Year with lanterns and a variety show of Chinese Art and Culture. It is all part of the centre's new role in a programme organised by The Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival.

The Edinburgh Chinese Art and Culture community are organising the evening from 6pm-8pm.

The community is renowned for presenting spectacular performances of dance, circus, music, and opera. Tonight there will be complimentary Chinese dumplings for everyone. An amazing show with a price that everyone can afford!

Tickets cost £2 and you can book your place on Eventbrite here by phoning 0131 346 1405.

St Bride's Community Group is a registered charity and comprises a group of volunteers who manage the centre under the leadership of the fabulous Rona Brown in partnership with The City of Edinburgh Council.
