The Views offers buyers a spectacular semi rural setting, with easy commuting across the entire central belt.

Other properties currently available in the final phase at The Views, which has just been released, include the three bedroom semi-detached Arrochar villa, (from £167,995), and the three bedroom detached Cruachan bungalow at £224,000.

The Arrochar

The properties at The Views offer an abundance of space and features, with luxury kitchens and bathrooms, en-suite master bedrooms, home offices, and spacious dining rooms.

“We’re showcasing the attractive Cairngorm villa this month,” said Sharron McCarthy, Sales and Marketing Manager for Allanwater Homes. “It’s an ideal house type for a growing family. We also have a very sought after new build bungalow, a stunning three bedroom design, and our final Arrochar three bedroom semi-detached home.”

“We are confident prospective buyers will love this beautifully situated development in the charming village of Saline which has its own school, Post Office and Golf Course.”

“All of our properties are energy efficient to offer lower running costs too,” she added.

Buyers at The Views can choose their contemporary kitchens, complete with integrated appliances, from a wide choice available, subject to reservation date and build schedule. Many available optional extras are available, with some plots offered with a garage. The Views has been specially designed to offer generous plot sizes.

The Sales Office is open at The Views, Thursday to Monday 11am – 5.30pm, along with the development's fantastic Grampian Showhome.
