

Fly into town with a chauffeur driven car straight from your plane

There is a new luxury addition at Edinburgh airport. Now you can order a new chauffeur service to pick you up from the tarmac and take you to your destination.

Working with Edinburgh Executive Carriages, the airport's preferred chauffeur service, domestic passengers can be met by their driver at the foot of the plane steps, taken to their waiting vehicle and to their destination.

Gail Taylor, Director of Retail and Property at Edinburgh Airport said: "We are always looking to improve our passenger experience and make changes or introduce things that make travelling that little bit easier and more comfortable for people, and the introduction of this chauffeur service brings that extra element.

"We are delighted to be working with EEC to bring this to our passengers."

Paul Scott, Chief Executive of Edinburgh Executive Carriages said: "We're delighted to be able to offer our tailored service to passengers at Scotland's busiest airport and get them to their destinations in a seamless and comfortable fashion, something which we pride ourselves on.
