

Get your kids active with soft-play membership this month

Inspire kids to get the active habit. Join in the adventure with Edinburgh Leisure's soft-play membership, where children get to sample the world of sport and fitness from an early age. For those signing up to become a member in February 2019, March is completely free.

From only £16.00* per month for one child (£27.00 for two children, £32.50 for three children and £38 for four children), the membership offers incredible value, fantastic flexibility and of course will keep little ones entertained and burning off energy as they explore the amazing soft plays.

Little adventurers can visit as many times as they wish, enjoying unlimited fun at any of Edinburgh Leisure's three soft play venues across the city at Clambers at the Royal Commonwealth Pool, Tumbles at Portobello and Scrambles at EICA: Ratho, which has just had an exciting refurbishment with brand new frames for babies, toddlers and juniors, suitable for 0-10 years old.

Children can join in the adventure with Scrambles' new hero character, Skye and her mountain friends, owl and stag at the EICA: Ratho, who are never happier than when they recruit new explorers on their adventures.

Edinburgh Leisure's play frames are suitable for children up to ten years old. Each venue has a café where healthy snacks and tasty treats can be enjoyed.

With great member benefits including special offers, members' events and free birthday party places, The Young Explorer is only available to buy in person at your nearest Edinburgh Leisure soft-play venue.
