

Share the love this Valentine's Day – enter the Ross Fountain competition

Nicola and Willem love West Princes Street Gardens so much they had their wedding photos taken there. Willem from Barcelona fell in love with Edinburgh while here on holiday in 2014.

He met Nicola in 2016 and they often shared lunch in the gardens while Nicola was working locally. They were then married in the city centre last month and their six month-old chocolate labrador puppy Lincoln came too.

Nicola said: “The Ross Fountain and Edinburgh Castle provided the perfect backdrop to our Scottish wedding. There aren't many city centre locations in the world that are as stunning and iconic as West Princes Street Gardens.”

Willem said: “The beauty of the gardens here is that it is a precious green space for everyone in the heart of the city.”

Have you met your partner at West Princes Street Gardens? Maybe your parents met there – or your grandparents? This Valentine's Day, the Ross Development Trust would love to hear your memories and stories.

To enter upload your photos and stories on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram to @TheRDtrust with the hashtag #lovewpsg or email hello@rdtrust.org

The Ross Development Trust continues with its plans to create a unique venue in West Princes Street Gardens with a fundraising campaign.

As a thank you for sharing your stories and photos, all responses will be entered into a free prize draw to win a romantic afternoon tea for two at the Victorian Cottage in the heart of West Princes Street Gardens.

Deadline for prize draw entries is 4pm on Thursday 28 February 2019. The winner will be selected at random and announced on Monday 4 March 2019.

And if you're passing by West Princes Street Gardens on Valentine's Day, look out for a special guest who will be handing out red roses to the first 12 visitors at West Princes Street Gardens (Mound Street entrance) from 8.00am.
