

What's on in March – An Evening of Opera Classics II

Tucked away on the Southside of Edinburgh is an architectural gem that only rarely opens its doors to the general public. Now there is an opportunity to visit this secret treasure and hear some wonderful opera arias at the same time!

Following last year's sell-out success, The Grand Synagogue on Edinburgh's Salisbury Road welcomes back the singers and musicians of Classical Musicians Scotland for An Evening of Opera Classics featuring favourites from Bizet, Puccini, Mozart, Verdi and many more.

For those wanting a thoroughly indulgent experience, not only can you hear wonderful music in beautiful surroundings, but you can also sample some sumptuous traditional Jewish cooking at a pre-concert supper.

Earlybird ticket offers available until 28th February.

An Evening of Opera Classics Sunday 31 March 2019 Concert begins 7.30pm Pre-concert Supper 6pm

Book tickets here

Telephone bookings: 0131 668 2019

Rossini    Lehar    Offenbach    Gershwin    Beethoven . . .

*Book
Pre-Opera
Supper
for 6pm*

Edinburgh Hebrew Congregation in association with Classical Musicians Scotland presents

OPERA TICKET PRICES

EARLY EARLYBIRD to 31 JAN    £23
EARLYBIRD to 28 FEB    £28
STANDARD to 31 MAR    £35
STUDENT    £15

GROUP OF 10 ?
ONE GOES FREE

AN EVENING OF OPERA CLASSICS II

7.30pm, Sunday 31 March 2019

 The Grand Synagogue, 4a Salisbury Rd, Edinburgh EH16 5AB