

Anna Somerville Reflections at &Gallery

&Gallery on Dundas Street has an exhibition of the latest work by local artist Anna Somerville.

From 3-30 March 2019 Reflections is Somerville's most recent evolution of oil paintings and for the first time, mixed media on paper. Her decision to work on paper has given her a newfound freedom to work with greater immediacy and with the full gamut of artists materials; acrylics, inks, oil bars, pastels, pencils, graphite and spray paint.

Passionate about paint, mark making and colour, Somerville works intuitively imagining expressive, painterly scapes that conjure up hazy memories of places that she has visited.

Layers of thick impasto paint, fine detail glazes, scratched, worked back, scrubbed out and scribbled over canvas, linen and paper, she creates open expanses of space and light in her compositions, allowing the viewer to delve between the layers of paint and reflect on their own memories.

Somerville is an award-winning graduate from Edinburgh College of Art and her work has been exhibited in many galleries both nationally and internationally. She works from her studio at Summerhall in Edinburgh where she says she very much enjoys the vibrancy of the building and its residents.
