

Brunton stop off for Heroes

All or Nothing Aerial Dance Theatre and Room 2 Manoeuvre, two Edinburgh based dance companies have teamed up for a light-hearted new touring show for all the family.

Heroes looks at the humorous journey of two performers, Tony Mills and Beverley Grant, as they navigate their way through the unforgiving world of idols, superheroes and celebrity culture.

The show is on a tour of 17 Scottish venues including The Brunton Theatre, Musselburgh on 29 March (19.30).

The performance asks profound questions with humour, straight-talking and graceful, intense and symbolic aerial and circus movement.

The Heroes tour has been made possible with funding from Creative Scotland and support from The Work Room, The Brunton Theatre, Platform and Irish Aerial Creation Centre and the advised age is seven years plus.

Photo by Eoin Carey