

ELISA Libraries Fair – beyond the bookshelves

ELISA Libraries Fair – Beyond the bookshelves: discover the city's libraries

Central Library will be hosting the Edinburgh Libraries and Information Services Agency (ELISA) Libraries Fair on the mezzanine level on Saturday 23 March 2019, 1.30pm – 4.00pm.

Drop in and find out about the wide and diverse array of libraries in Edinburgh and to discover how you can get an ELISA library passport which can enable you to gain access to these other libraries across Edinburgh.

There are many different libraries in Edinburgh and the Libraries Fair invites you to meet representatives from a range of libraries all under one roof. Libraries taking part include:

Edinburgh City Libraries

Edinburgh Zine Library

National Library of Scotland

Royal Botanic Garden Library and Archive

Scottish Poetry Library

University of Edinburgh including the Centre for Research Collections.

There will be a free (but ticketed) family-friendly storytelling session with Janis Mackay, live music, a mini drop-in zine workshop and badgemaking.

Go along, enjoy the fun and discover what Edinburgh's world of libraries has to offer.
