

Ice hockey – Racers looking to add to their silverware

Murrayfield Racers take a six-goal lead to Kirkcaldy on Sunday to face Kestrels in the Scottish Cup.

Tony Hand's men are not taking the opposition lightly as they bid to add further silverware to the Scottish National League crown.

Elsewhere, in the Elite League, Fife Flyers visit bottom club Milton Keynes Lightning and coach Todd Dutiaume warned that the Fife club have struggled in the Buckinghamshire rink so far this season.

They are at Coventry Blaze on Sunday as the Midlands club battle with Manchester Storm and Dundee Stars for a play-off spot.

Stars are at Guildford Flames on Saturday and visit Nottingham Panthers on Sunday.
