

Mercat win responsible business award

At the Edinburgh Chamber of Commerce on Thursday night, the team at Mercat Tours won the Responsible Business Award. Being a responsible business is something they take great pride in.

Kat Brogan, Managing Director of Mercat Tours said : “We are delighted to have been presented with the Responsible Business Award. We always strive to ensure that our investments in our staff and community initiatives have a positive wider impact on our local environment and our the wider economy in Edinburgh. We are particularly proud to have attained Investors in People in record time, claimed the first five-star award from VisitScotland and be described as ‘pioneers’ by Green Tourism Business Scheme.

“We always keen to help coordinate projects across the tourism sector to try and multiply the effect for all people, at all levels; visitors, staff, environment and community.”

Outlander Tours – Royal Mile Photo Gordon Jack/www.scotimage.com

Gory Tours take in some of the closes on The Royal Mile