

Put it to the People march – Edinburgh send off tonight

Rally Put it to the People – City of Festivals Send-Off
Friday, 22 March 2019

18:00 – 19:00 Bristo Square, Edinburgh, EH8 9AJ

With crucial votes in Parliament next week, organisers of the march in London tomorrow say that it is even more important that ‘all of us who support continued membership of the European Union get out there and tell our politicians we want a chance to support Brexit’.

They invite you to go to the big People’s Vote march in London tomorrow 23 March 2019. It is expected to be massive, and organisers want a big presence from Scotland to be there. T hey have organised a number of coaches from Scotland, and there are still a few places on the Edinburgh one: book here.

If you can’t go you can help support the cost of the coaches (which they have subsidised to keep prices down) by supporting their crowdfunder (they have reached the crowdfunder target, but it doesn’t meet all their costs – and if they do have surplus funds from the crowdfunder, they promise that they will use them for other campaigning activity!)

And if you can’t go to London, you can show your support in Edinburgh for the rally tonight before the big London march.
