

Woman in hospital after falling from block of flats

A police investigation is underway to establish the full circumstances after a 30-year-old woman fell from a window of a block of flats in Edinburgh.

The woman was taken to the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary with serious leg injuries.

The incident happened on Dumbiedykes Road at about 08:00.

A Police Scotland spokeswoman said: "Officers are currently investigating the full circumstances surrounding this incident."