

Embrace your inner Poppins with Gavin Oattes

Edinburgh accountants Thomson Cooper are bringing a bit of fun to their annual business development seminar this year with the help of Gavin Oattes from Tree of Knowledge.

Running in Edinburgh and Dunfermline on Friday 3 May, the event promises to be an entertaining session where Gavin will share highlights from his best-selling book 'Shine' to inspire delegates to harness the power of play.

Gavin is a sought-after international keynote speaker and #1 best-selling author whose insight and positivity have earned him a massive following on social media from around the world. He will focus on how fun and positivity can improve the synergy within a business and benefit life at home too.

There is no charge to attend the seminar but booking is essential as space is limited. Full details and the online booking form can be found at www.thomsoncooper.com

Or contact Lynn Wardlaw on 01383 628800. The booking deadline is Wednesday 24 April.
