

Get in the swing of it with a golf membership

With the lighter nights on their way, Edinburgh Leisure gym and fitness customers can get in the swing of it, with a golf 'bolt-on' membership, which will give unlimited access to six stunning golf courses all within driving range of the city centre.

Edinburgh Leisure Golf Club includes Braid Hills

The Edinburgh Leisure 'Golf Bolt On' spans all six of Edinburgh Leisure's courses which include: Braid Hills, Carrick Knowe, Craigentinny, Portobello, Silverknowes and the Wee Braids and costs just £26 per month, in addition to their normal membership.

David Atkinson, Golf Manager at Edinburgh Leisure said: 'The Golf Bolt On is great value considering 18 holes at Braid Hills may cost as much as £27.50 at the weekend. It will definitely appeal to casual golfers, who might only play a round or two every month but who like to use golf as part of their overall fitness regime.'

The Golf Bolt On Membership is available to buy at any Edinburgh Leisure site (but is not available online) – www.edinburghleisure.co.uk/memberships/golf
